Subject: ANTI-FRAUD AND MISCONDUCT PROGRAM (AFMP)

ENEC is committed to highest business ethics through creating and sustaining a corporate environment in which the affairs of the Company are conducted in a fair and transparent manner, by adopting the highest standards of professionalism, honesty and integrity, free from any acts of fraud or misconduct. As part of ENEC's continuous commitment to adhere to the highest standards of business ethics and professional conduct, ENEC has implemented its Anti-Fraud and Misconduct Program (AFMP).

ENEC's AFMP provides a mechanism for reporting potential activities and/or behaviors which may be construed as misconduct and/or fraudulent for example unfair practices in the procurement process of the company including pre-qualifications, bid evaluations, and contract award, bribery/corruption, reporting of fraudulent financial information to stakeholders, any government entity, or any other company matters involving fraud, employee misconduct, illegality or health and safety and environmental issues which may result in financial loss, damaging to the safety culture and reputation of ENEC and / or its employees. Information regarding ENEC's AFMP, reporting guidelines including the whistle blowing hotline can be found on ENEC's website at www.enec.gov.ae under the reporting tab located at the footer of the webpage. ENEC's Code of General Business Principles and Conduct Reference Guide can be found on ENEC's website under the tab titled About Us.

ENEC expects its suppliers to deliver goods and services in accordance with the terms and conditions governing contractual obligations and with the highest standards of professional integrity and business ethics, including the reporting of any activities and behaviors which fall under ENEC's AFMP. Please ensure that all members of your staff working on the Nuclear Program are made aware of ENEC's AFMP by directing them to ENEC's website.

Yours sincerely

A/ Procurement & Contracts Management Manager
